

Traditional Youth Network vs. Large Chunk of Concrete: a hotbed of debate

Bismo Falcor | Founding Overlord

Recently, there has been a lot of debate on campus regarding the treatment of white people.

While the overwhelming majority of the approximately 40,000 students on campus disagree that white people are being oppressed, around 15 don't. Flipside decided to stage a debate between the two sides.

To represent the “holy crap we need to save the white people from all of the people who aren't white” opinion, we have invited former KKK leader Dükington Davis. To represent the other point of view, we have invited a large chunk of concrete.

Traditional Youth Network: THE WHITE RACE IS IN DANGER!

Look no further than the unstoppable tide of Taco Bell. With 6,500 locations, Taco Bell has covered the nation in a smallpox-like blanket of maracas, sombreros and laziness.

As far as we know, they are one step closer to diabolically infecting us true Americans with their Black (Bean) Death. A recent study even showed that by 2045, tacos will outnumber white people by a ratio of 3:1. This is serious.

Large Chunk of Concrete: I am a glorified rock.

Traditional Youth Network: It is an absolute travesty that blacks, Jews, gays, lesbians, bisexuals, pansexuals, transsexuals, sequinsexuals and even Puerto Ricans are allowed to use the same urinals we white people use! That's just unsanitary! As a white person, I have a right to keep my piss separate from their piss!

Large Chunk of Concrete:

Traditional Youth Network: THE JEWS CONTROL THE MEDIA. You'd have to be blind to miss it! Anyone and everyone who has airtime on the news is Jewish! Jon Stewart, Rachel Maddow, Anderson Cooper, Bill O'Reilly, Al Roker, even Fareed Zakaria! It's bad enough they have their Jew Caves in the northwest corner of the Mojave Desert where they make deals with each other to harvest the organs of Christian white babies, but now they control the news media! thIS MaDnESS MUSt EnD.

Large Chunk of Concrete: I stand by my previous statements. Also, I'm a goddamn rock.

Flipside declares Large Chunk of Concrete Winner!!!!

One Woman. One Mission. Twelve Different Flavors

Constance T. Nopel
Managing Overlord

I spotted her pigtails from across the parking lot. Wide, blue eyes with hair ribbons to match. She was clever, this one. A drug dealer of the sweetest kind, openly peddling her overpriced goods to the withdrawn addicts. Her neatly stacked boxes in her red wagon guarded by a mere stuffed animal flaunted the easy access to euphoria—that is, if you could pay the price. I cautiously approached her, noting each badge expertly sewn to her green sash:

A Social Butterfly badge. A DIY Jewelry badge. An Ice Dream Party badge.

Clearly, this girl was highly trained.

I neared close enough for her to skip in my direction. I looked over her stash: Samoas, Tagalongs, Thin Mints: the motherload. She smiled prettily up at me.

“My name is Susie, and this is Mr. Bear-ee. Would you like to buy a box of Girl Scout cookies?”

That was all the proof I needed. Whipping out a pair of handcuffs, I pinned little Susie to the asphalt.

Perhaps you think it strange that I restrained a child against the ground. Perhaps you find it even stranger that I immediately after handcuffed Mr. Bear-ee in an even smaller pair of handcuffs. But I doubt you have any surprise at how the masses of passerby pilfered her drug-like merchandise as soon as Susie was incapacitated.

You see, little Susie was not a normal girl. Little Susie was a Girl Scout. I had been tracking little Susie for weeks, after hearing large reports of mothers cheating on their diets, coworkers mildly annoyed by fathers bringing order sheets into work, and desperate college students pestering anyone with a little sister.

You may think these girls are normal. But none —none— of these girls are normal. And I will devote my life to bringing down this cookie cartel—no matter what the troop mothers have to say about it.
